

SANTA MONICA MOUNTAINS

SATWIWA NATIVE AMERICAN INDIAN CULTURE CENTER

FALL PROGRAMS

SUN 9/9 10am - 12pm, and 1pm - 3pm

Celebrate late summer with Chumash elder and Satwiwa co-founder Charlie Cooke as he shares his culture through the art of storytelling. All ages welcome.

SAT 9/22 6:00pm - 7:30pm

The Garcia family performs Native American dance including Northern Traditional and shawl dancing. All ages welcome. Bring a flashlight!

SUN 10/7 10am - 2pm

Start the month of October with the opening of the gourd mask art exhibit of Bernie Granados Jr. This talented Apache-Zacatec artist produces amazing acrylic art and intricately painted gourd masks. The exhibit will run through January 5, 2013. All ages welcome.

SUN 10/21 10am - 12pm & 1pm - 3pm

Michael Chas Williams, Wichita tribal artist will teach the basics of creating your very own dream catcher. Basic materials are provided. Additional materials including beads, feathers, and leather may be purchased (cash only). All ages welcome.

SUN 11/4 10am - 12pm & 1pm - 3pm

Become familiar with the indigenous native plant uses within the Satwiwa botanical garden with Richard Bugbee, a Payumkawichum native. All ages welcome.

SUN 11/18 10am - 12pm & 1pm - 3pm

Native American, Rowan Harrison from the Navajo and Pueblo of Isleta people from New Mexico, will demonstrate and teach the traditional methods of coiling pottery. All ages welcome.

SUN 12/2 10am - 3pm

Satwiwa Winter Solstice Guest artist show and sale. Join us for a day of family fun and discovery. Purchase unique Native American art, jewelry and music for the holidays. Meet the local artist and guests hosts of Satwiwa!

SUN 12/16 10am - 12pm & 1pm - 3pm

Join Lakota native, Kathy Willcuts in making your very own beaded bracelet. She will discuss the stages in creating bead work and the traditions in the art. All ages welcome.

More information please call the National Park Service at 805-370-2301

